

BE WiSE
Better Engineering for Women in Science & Engineering

BE WiSE CRES Overnight – May 2, 2008
“Geo Challenge - Human Impact on Earth”
Conservation and Research for Endangered Species (CRES)

Friday, May 2nd, 2008

- | | |
|------------|---|
| 5:00pm | Arrival and Check-in at the San Diego County Office of Education for girls riding shuttle bus |
| 6:15 | Drop-off at the Beckman Center (Shuttle and parents) |
| 6:30 | Introductions and Ice Breaker |
| 7:00 | Dinner |
| 7:30 | Keynote Speaker: Allison Alberts, Ph.D.
Director of Conservation and Research, CRES
“Conserving San Diego’s Remarkable Biodiversity” |
| 8:00-10:00 | “Using genetic studies of chromosomes and DNA to help save animals endangered by human activities”
Suellen Charter and Sarah Burgess-Herbert, Ph.D.
“Tracking the California Condor in Baja, CA Mexico”
Catalina Porras
“Plant Conservation in San Diego County” - Laurie Lippitt
“Pollution and Hormones: How humans impact reproduction in endangered species” - Chris Tubbs and Jennifer Farmer |
| 10:00 | Reflections/big picture discussion |
| 10:30 | Wrap-up, Pajamas |
| 11:00 | Snack and a movie (“Happy Feet”) |

Saturday, May 3rd, 2008

- | | |
|--------|---|
| 7:00am | Wake-up |
| 7:30 | Breakfast and Evaluations |
| 8:15 | Animal Presentation in the Beckman Center Courtyard |
| 9:00 | Shuttle leaves for the San Diego County of Education, parents pick-up remaining girls at the Beckman Center |

